

Temporary Housing

Emergencies come up and sometimes households need temporary housing until they can find permanent housing. The following organizations provide shelter and transitional housing or money for hotel rooms, rent, security deposits, first and last month's rent, and moving costs.

Lift Tower Lodge

Lift Tower Lodge in Ketchum contains 14 units of transitional housing at a former motel. There is a communal kitchen, laundry room, and patio space with grill. It is managed by Blaine County Housing Authority and the City of Ketchum.
